Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish and serve to correct and cure all such desagements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemically pure, tripie-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly simpleyed alcohol. Now this glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine, instead of a deleterious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion, Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett M. lical College, Chicago, says of it:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose," It is one of the best manufactured products of the present time it its enton upon enfeebled, disordered stom chis especially if there is ulceration or cate that gastrilis catarrhal inflammation of sto, ach, it is a most efficient preparation. Gly brital and excessive gastric acidity. It is use to in chronic intestinal dyspepsia, especially in chronic constipation, simulating the receiver and exercitory functions of the Intestinal glands."

When combined, in just the right proper-

Tory and exercitory functions of the Intestinal Flanks.

When combined, in just the right proportions, with Goldon Seal root, Stome root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's look, Indiahorot and Mandrake root, or the extra 15 of these, as in Dr. Pierco'n Goldon and Alean Discovery, there can be no dout of its great efficacy in the cure of ril stomatic, liver and intestinal disorders and dorangements. These several ingrenients have the strongest endorsement in all such cases of such eminent medical leaders as Fad. K. Bartholow, M. D. of Jefferson Medical College, Chicago: Prof. Hobert A. Hars, M. D. of Medical Brustman, University, and Department, University of New York; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D. Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago, Prof. John N. Smidler, M. D. and Prof. John King, M. D. skin is admired the world over for its refiners and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dendruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that caps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpleide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Becuring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful mits of hair to rewbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. HARTJE CASE NEARING THE END. After but a brief session of court yesterday morning in Pittsburg, Pa., the has had a stage career of 41 years. Her great Hartje divorce trial came to an father. John Templeton, was a well end. Next Monday the court will hear the arguments of the attorneys and will render a decision in September. Fol-lowing the sensational events of Wedneeday yesterday was an exceedingly quiet day, although the testimony pre-seared by a couple of witnesses for Mrs. Har je yesterday morning was of great importance.

The witnesses swore yesterday morning that Edward Hartje had told them, April 12, that he had a number of let-ters which Mrs. Hartje had written to "Personally," said Mr. Hartje, who is a brother of the libellant, "I never saw anything wrong with Mrs. Hartje. She slways appeared to be a perfect lady. But, of course, you know, the family is always the last to hear of anything like this. Since the separation I have into possession of letters Mrs. Hartje has written to other men which prove her to be a very bad woman."

Last Monday detectives employed for Harije testified they had entered Tom Madine's room in his boarding-house and stolen the letters used in the case from his trunk. This robbery occurred June 18. These were the only letters presented in the trial of the case. Several torn scraps of letters which Edward Harije dug out of an ashpile were also placed in evidence. They were of no import-The whole fight centered on these letters. They were the only evidence which the libellant presented to prove his charge that Mrs. Hartje had been too friendly with Tom Madine. Several letters written by Mrs. Hartje's sister, which were also dog out of the ashpile in pieces, were pasted on cardboard, and by these framents the libeliant of these fragments the libellant at-acy and acted as go betweens for them.

As soon as the case closed yesterday ffers of wagers became plentiful, but here were few takers, although odds of will win. Attorneys spoken to on the sutject believe that the case is going to me decided in her tavor. They based their belief on the fact that the only evidence Hartje presented in defense of his allegations was the letters, and these are declared by the defense to be for-

The relief of all sides, when the long Deaths conserved 300 trial came to au end yesterday, was for heavy heards manifest. With over 3,000 pages of testimony it breaks all records for a divorce in Pennsylvania, perhaps in the country.

FAY TEMPLETON WEDS. Announcement was made in Philadelphia yesterday of the marriage Wednesday of Fay Templeton, the actress, o William Patterson, of Pittsburg. The ceremony was preformed by Rev. F. G. Steinmetz at the home of Dr. Giles, a brother-in-law of the bride, at Ridley Park, a suburb of Philadelphia Immediately after the wedding the couple departed on a brdisl tour.

From time to time Miss Templeton has been reported as being engaged to various men. A week ago it was re-ported on Broadway that she was soon At the close of the Chicago engagement she gave the members of her company a supper on the theater Her finance was present and distributed gifts. It is said that Miss Templeton will remain on the stage for another season. and then retire to rivate life. This is not the actress's first matrimo-This is not the actress's first matrimonial venture. She was divorced from W. H. West, the minstrel man, after a honeymoon of six weeks, West alleging that she deserted him.

Her next husband was Howel! Os rne, a well-known character in fashonable and sporting circles of New York. Osborne's acquaintanceship with Fay Templeton was bitterly deplored by his mother, who made her will in such form as to cut him off should be ever marry an actress. In court proceedings that followed it became known that Osborne and Miss Templeton had been secretly married at the time the will Mis: Templeton sued out an injunction and forced Edwardes to let her appear without the silk sash stipulated by the Lord Chamberlain.

Fay Templeton is 45 years old, and known southern manager and player, and her mother, Alice Vane, was a singer. The daughter was born at Little Rock, Ark., in 1861, and played in her father's company at the age of four. Since then she has appeared in a long line of musical comedies and comic operas.

Saloonkeeper Killed.

J. G. Wellington, a Memphis saloon keeper, was killed; W. J. Cooke, a judge of election, is fatally wounded, and B. E. Conn less seriously injured, in a fight at a polling place a few minutes after the closing of the polls for the election of county officers yesterday. Wellington insisted on being present at the count of the ballots, and in an argument he is the ballots, and in an argument he is said to have drawn a revolver and begun shooting. According to the story told to the police, Conn rushed out of the polling place, secured a shotgun, and because fairly riddled. gan firing. The first shot fairly riddled We'lington with buckshot. Wellington kept on firing until he dropped, and when the smoke of the battle cleared away Cooke was found on the floor des-perately wounded, a bullet from Wellington's revolver having pierced his
